

SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Not necessarily, Senator Abboud.

SENATOR ABOUD: Well, what are these people...what is going to happen if someone is followed by a police officer outside the city of limits of my town of Ralston, and they are arrested by a county official, county sheriff, and that person is arrested, will he be incarcerated if he is being charged with an offense?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Senator...

SENATOR ABOUD: It is a possibility, isn't it? It is a remote possibility probably under your thinking but it still is a possibility, if someone is arrested that they will serve some time in one of our state facilities?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Senator, what's interesting about your question is that you have this authority and power right now because of where you live, and so does Lancaster County. You already have specific statutes that do this.

SENATOR ABOUD: Well, let's take Sarpy County then. Someone, a police officer from Sarpy, from LaVista arrests some individual that wanders into Sarpy County following the language of your law. Now that individual, there is an assumption there that that person will be arrested and he will probably be incarcerated.

SENATOR CROSBY PRESIDING

SENATOR CROSBY: Time.

SENATOR ABOUD: Thank you.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Abboud. Senator Chambers. your light is on next.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Madam President, members of the Legislature, I'd like to ask Senator Kristensen a couple of questions. Senator Kristensen, I have had a little time to look at the bill, itself, and this language that was added this morning makes it clear, if I understood correctly, that if the officer is leaving his or her jurisdiction, it can be because an
